

Override The Risk Rating

This gives you the option to override the risk rating calculated by the ATIQ at your discretion based on your knowledge of your client needs and circumstances

The free text box allows you to capture rationale

The check box feature for added control. This must be tick to save the risk rating amendment

This displays on screen and you have the option to include in report

The system will play back the amendment and will include the reason for the change

More Options give you the options on how you can proceed

Proceed to build Portfolio
View Assessment Report
Save